

David Hutcheson – 7P Ranch Nutrition Consultant

Services include, but not limited to; ration formulation and consultation on health and nutrition issues to ensure the optimization cattle's performance.

David Paul Hutcheson presently lives in Amarillo, Texas and is married to Peggy S. Hutcheson and has two children John and Sherry. David received degrees from University of Missouri, PhD Animal Nutrition 1970; University of Missouri, M.S., Animal Nutrition 1967 and Texas A&M College B. S 1963.

Present position is President of Animal-Agricultural Consulting, Inc., 5904 Devon, Amarillo, Texas.

Previously employed as a professor with Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, Amarillo, Texas (15 years) and University of Missouri (8 1/2 years). Publications include 80 refereed Journal Articles, 110 symposia and book chapters and 120 abstracts. He does consulting work in South Africa, Brazil, Australia, US and Texas. He served on the National Research Council (NRC) Committee that was responsible for the 1997 Nutrient Requirements for Beef Cattle.